MEMORANDUM TO: [REDACTED]

25X1A

During your recent visit [REDACTED] you asked me to remind you of the following:

25X1C

[REDACTED] or other method of indicating that

[REDACTED]

b. The invitation to [REDACTED] to give a series of lectures in Washington. This matter now stands with the understanding by [REDACTED] that these lectures will take place in April or May 1954. He is prepared to come to the United States (at KUBARK expense) at that time or earlier. [REDACTED] has now retired to his home in [REDACTED]

c. Cooperation with [REDACTED] in Latin America. In answer to your query regarding progress, I informed you that arrangements initially proposed for collaboration in [REDACTED] had broken down and that we are now on a new tack. Disagreement was in no small measure due to the legalistic approach which we took to the business. A less formal arrangement would have had a better chance.
